

SOCIOLOGY

CHILDWALL
SPORTS &
SCIENCE ACADEMY

SOCIOLOGY

Sociology is the study of human societies, social relationship and institutions. It examines how individuals interact within groups and how societies develop, change and function. Sociology is a social science that studies human societies, their interactions, and the processes that preserve and change them. It examines the dynamics of institutions, communities, populations, and various social groups. Sociology also studies social status, social movements, and societal disorder, drawing on a larger societal context to explain social phenomena.

Related Higher Education Courses

Future Careers

Work Experience Opportunities

Local councils; Social care organisations; Schools and education departments; Police, probation, and prison services; Shelter, Crisis, Barnardo's, The Children's Society; Victim support groups; Homeless shelters and food banks; Law firms; Think tanks and advocacy groups; Civil Service internships; Social research agencies; Universities; Media outlets.

A-LEVEL

Residential Opportunity

London Psychology & Sociology School Trips & Tours

A psychology and sociology trip to London would be a great opportunity to develop knowledge and interest in both of these areas. The trip will include an exclusive mental health visits to a Jack the Ripper walking tour, visit to the Freud Museum, Twist Museum and the House of Parliament. The trip will also include an overnight stay in London, inclusive of travel and meals.

The Twist Museum

Freud Museum

The Holocaust Exhibition at the Imperial War Museum

Enrichment Opportunities

- Education in Action – Sociology Study Days
- UCL – Why We Post Project Resources
- Sociology Film Club or TED Talk Discussions
- Debating Society
- Sociology Tutorials & Reading Groups
- Volunteering Projects
- Student Leadership & Union Activities

ENGAGE, ENABLE, EMPOWER